

Sherry Mason

March 20, 1953 - February 9, 2020

Sharon Anne “Sherry” Mason, age 66, of Whitestown, Indiana, died peacefully in her sleep at her home on February 9, 2020. Born March 20, 1953, in St. Louis, MO, Sherry was the daughter of Harold and Dorthea Mason of Greencastle who preceded her in death. She graduated from Greencastle High School and Hanover University, where she was a Phi Mu and earned a Bachelor’s of Science in Psychology, before settling in Indianapolis.

After a brief marriage to Richard VanReenen, Sherry dated David Fulton of Indianapolis. She and David married in 1984, moving to Whitestown, IN, in 1985, where they raised two sons, Robert David Fulton and Christopher Mason Fulton. Sherry was a computer programmer by profession, and a member of Mensa. She was a founding member and frequent actress on stage with Center Stage Community Theatre in Lebanon. Among her proudest roles was in the comedy “Greater Tuna” where she played Arles. She founded the Perry Worth Elementary School Drama Club and wrote several original plays for the students.

Sherry was an actress, cook, cat-lover, artist, cinephile, and snow skier. She touched many lives through her activity in the community and loving personality.

Sherry is survived by her two sons, Robert David Fulton of St. Petersburg, FL and Christopher Mason Fulton of Lafayette, IN; and brothers Steve Mason of Greencastle, IN and Scott Mason of Avon, IN.

Family and friends are invited to attend a memorial celebration of Sherry's life being held on Sunday, February 23, 2020, from 2pm to 5pm at Center Stage Community Theatre, 604 West Powell Street, Lebanon, IN 46052.

“ Sherry was my best friend when we grew up in Greencastle, until we moved away when I was 8. It was a long time ago, but I never forgot her, and our times together. When we reconnected years later, she asked "so how was 4th grade?" heehee! I only wish we'd had a chance to get together in person before she was gone too soon. We spent so much time together and had many fun adventures. I lived on Arlington St., and it was just a short walk to get to the "new houses" where she lived. We played imaginative games, played out in the fields and backyards, roaming all over the area. In those days that was the norm. We had fun with Debby L. and Margo H., also good friends, and I was glad she had them for friends when we left. Thank you, Debby, for letting me know of her passing. Sincere condolences to her sons and family! With love, Alice (Williams) Root

“ I am so saddened to hear of Sherry's passing. We were classmates & Phi Mu sorority sisters at Hanover College. I appreciated her grace, unique(ness) and our shared feminist opinions. Although I lost touch through the years, I am not surprised to learn of her accomplishments and impact on her community. LIOB, Ann King-Cox
