“ I remember going to his house and my parents told me I couldn't have a soda but he wouldn't hear of it. It not only snuck one for me but my sister. He just wanted everyone to be happy. You will be miss by all that knew you. I was lucky enough to call you my uncle.

“ I will always remember Stanley's humor. He was always telling jokes and smiling and laughing. He sure loved his cokes and animal friends. He was such a big part of Eagle Creek Nursery. Everyone loved him.

“ The thing I remember the most was visiting Uncle Stanley when I was younger and he would have a bowl of can tops and we would make a chain out of them and he would hang the chain in his bedroom doorway. ”
