“ We knew Stanley and Teresa as neighbors. They welcomed us and then our new baby daughter, Emma, into the farmhouse there between he and Lester. I'll never forget their kindness to us while living there 3 short years. I'd see him often in downtown Lebanon to wave to and say hello. They were a very special couple. Our thoughts and prayers to family and all his friends. Laura & Emma Kafka, Lebanon

“ Stanley was a lovely gentleman. I did not know him well, only from church. I do remember speaking to him a few times and that he was always such a sweet gentleman. Stanley was married to a cousin of my cousin Rosemary Endres. May he rest in peace and perpetual light shine upon him. He will be truly missed. Praying for all of you, his family.

“ We enjoyed Stanley as soon as we met him at St. Joseph's church. We all became the Breakfast club; meeting mainly at Denny's after church on Sundays. He was a joy to know. He also came to our 50th anniversary in December 2022. We are grateful we knew him :-)
