

Stephen "Speedy" Davis

September 8, 1948 - August 17, 2017

Mr. Stephen Paul "Speedy" Davis, 68, passed away Thursday evening, August 17, 2017, at St. Vincent Hospital in Indianapolis. He was born in Clinton County, Indiana, on September 8, 1948 a son of the late Paul M. and Jean M. (Sheets) Davis.

On October 27, 1974, he was married to Judy D. (Campbell) Davis in Mechanicsburg, Indiana; she survives.

Early in his life, Steve attended schools in Clinton County and then graduated from Thorntown High School in 1966. Following school, he was enlisted in the United States Airforce where he served his country honorably.

Steve retired from Alcoa in Lafayette after 35+ years of employment working as an extruder.

He took great pride in his family and thought the world of his sons and grandchildren. He enjoyed fishing, NASCAR, and loved watching football, always rooting for the Colts and IU. Steve could often be seen during his afternoon drives around town. His memberships included, the Colfax VFW, Eagles, and County Line Fishing Club.

“ Judy & sons, I was so sorry to hear that Steve passed away. I have always considered him a classmate friend even though I have not seen him for years.. I did get to meet one of your sons when he worked for WEBO. Not sure it was Scott or Brad but I do remember he was a very nice young man. My prayers are with you and I am sorry I did' make it to the funeral home. Pam Wallace Swisher
