“ Dear Debbie, Amy, Alyssa and Family. We are so sorry and sad to hear of the passing of Steve. He was just one of the best Christian men anyone could want to know. We know your hearts are broken and hurting,. We pray GOD will wrap HIS arms around you and send HIS angels to be with you through this trying time and in the hard days to come. We have a lot of good memories going to church with you at Walnut Street Baptist. We love you and you will be in our thoughts and prayers. GOD BLESS THE STUTEVILLE FAMILY.

“ I was thinking this morning of all the fun we had when Steve and Debbie , Amy and Alyssa would come over after church on Sunday night after church. We would have snacks and Steve loved to play the card game PIT. He would always cheat and we all expected it and he had great fun denying it!!! It became a tradition 🤪 Some of our dearest friend for over 30 years. We will greatly miss Steve and I liked to call him. Mel Overfelt
