

Steven L. Detamore

November 23, 1947 - November 24, 2016

Steven Lynn Detamore, 69, of Lebanon, passed away on Thursday, November 24, 2016, at St. Vincent Hospice in Indianapolis. He was born in Lebanon, Indiana on November 23, 1947, the son of the late Lionel Dale Detamore and Ruth F. (Rose) Detamore Burgin.

Steven was a 1966 graduate of Lebanon High School. He attended Purdue Extension and then IUPUI where he received an Industrial Engineering Technology degree in 1977. He then went to Detroit, Michigan and graduated from General Motors Institute.

He was previously married to Jennifer LaBolle, Sherry Updike, and Pam Ogden.

Steven began working in Indianapolis as a salesman for Don Sisk Pontiac. He then became a sales manager, first working for Scott Garten Buick GMC in North Carolina from 1992 to June 1997 and then Watson Chevrolet in Tucson, Arizona until 2002, when he retired. He moved to Lebanon in 2002 and had resided there ever since.

In the past, Steven was a 32 degree Mason of Lodge 669 in Indianapolis, a member of the Indianapolis Murat Shrine, and the Indianapolis Scottish Rite. In addition he was a member of the Society of Sales Executives.

Steven enjoyed golfing, sail boating and scuba diving.
