“ It was my privilege taking care of Sue during her time of need with HHC. We would always laugh, talk about our weekends, our upcoming plans, and our plans to run away after winning the lottery that we never played. There wasn't a visit that Sue didn't have her make up on or her hair done (at least up in rollers to be done if I got there early god forbid). I definitely felt like family with Sue and Jim. Sending my love to all!! Forever her nurse-Kelli
