“ Bon voyage, Terry. You've been a wonderful and supportive husband to Jody, father to Virginia and Audra and grandfather to Catlyne and Ashlynn. And further a great brother-in-law, a sentiment I'm sure which Brenda is in complete agreement.

“ Uncle Terry was such a kind, big hearted man. When he and my Aunt planned to move here to Indiana, Uncle Terry came ahead and stayed with us at our parents home and used to take us kids to the local drive in on Friday nights and we just had the best time. You are missed Uncle Terry! Glad to have known you!

“ Terry was and is one of my favorite people. I will forever remember him buying us girls bags of candy and telling us we could have them as long as we called him uncle!! And I treasure the time he and Jody spent with me in recent years when I was going through some struggles. I'm thankful to know them both and have them as family. What a perfect couple you guys are. I'll see you again Uncle Terry...tell Tye I love him! And I love you too.

“ Terry was my third brother. From the very first time I met him at Mother and Daddy's home in Missouri on Christmas Eve I loved him like my other two brothers. I knew my baby sister had met the love of her life and he had met his! We will all love and miss you until we meet again! "Christmas morning gift, Terry!"
Your big sister, Ginny
