“ As I got to know Jean, I was amazed at all the experiences she had in her life. she was an amazing person. Jean was fun to be with, a confidant when needed, and a best friend. God gives us special people in our lives and Jean was one of those for me. I thank God for giving me the friendship I had with Jean.

As the song goes:
Go rest high on that mountain
Jean, your work on earth is done.
Go to heaven a-shoutin'
Love for the Father and the Son

Daryl, Jen and Ken, May all the wonderful memories you have carry you through these difficult times.

Jean is and will be missed.
My heart is with you guys,
Marlys

“ I worked with Jean for more than 20 years. During that time, she became more than a coworker, she became a wonderful friend. When she and Daryl met again, I was happy for her that she had a second chance at love, but I was very sad. She was leaving North Dakota. Whenever she came for a visit, it was always a happy occasion. We were able to meet with Jean again, see her wonderful smile, and share a hug. She will be missed. Goodbye and rest in peace my friend.
