“ Michelle,

I don't know if you remember me or not, but you sold Barry and I (Lisa Haughton) our first home 24+ years ago. My heart aches thinking about your terrible loss and I am so very sorry.

I tearfully share this message after talking to our son, Aaron who now lives in Austin, Texas. I thought Troy's name sounded familiar, so I asked if Aaron knew him from Webo. He said, "Troy was a senior lineman my freshman year. We hung out a little. He stuck up for me a lot and always said he liked my spunk". It touched my heart to know that Troy, as an upper classman, had taken the time to be kind to my boy. We both know that wasn't the 'cool' thing to do. I'm sure Troy's influence played a role in Aaron playing it forward and doing the same during his four years on the high school team. I thought this would be a nice memory to share with you and Troy's sons.

I am praying for courage, strength and healing of your broken hearts, for you and your family during the difficult time. Again, I am so sorry for your loss.

“ The memories I have with Troy are so very many n all great I couldn't pick just one if I tried. My mind can't even wrap around the loss of my friend. I've known u almost my whole life and I'm grateful I was able to call you my friend and I will forever cherish childhood memories as well as being grown. My deepest sympathies to your family as well as Diana and your boys. You will be forever missed but never forgotten. I'm deeply struggling with the fact I cannot attend your services but know my heart will be there and I will say my goodbye privately. Your gonna be one heck of an Angel, your boys will always have that safety. Big hugs and love to you big guy, rest easy.....

“ One of the funniest times with Troy was right after we graduated. Jessie Mullikan, Troy and I all went to big lots and bought water guns and goggles and decided to squirt kids in the park. We couldn't stop laughing as we rolled by slow and popped up to squirt them.

“ In second grade there was a talent show, Todd and I put our shorts on backwards and did cart wheels in front of the whole class. It was the most ridiculous thing ever, but I always remembered it.
