“ I was thinking about all the good things my mom, Mildred Plunkett, had to say about Vicki when she was in my mother's class. My mom thought she was the nicest little girl and a very hard worker. All of our classmates at Whitestown High School was happy that she and Ron were married. We enjoyed them both. I always loved to take things to the Courthouse and get a few minutes to talk to her. She was a great person with many friends. Sharon Walker.

“ Vicki and I went to Jacks casino for the day about 5 or 6 years ago and I turned the wrong way on a one way street in Cincinnati and almost got us killed and she was laughing so hard she said she almost peed her pants! She was a charter and lifelong member of our Whitestown legion Auxiliary and I treasured her friendship! So sorry for your loss...Amy Waddell
