“ This time of year is hardest, because I know how much you loved it, even though it got hectic and chaotic, it was still your time to shine because somehow you always pulled everyone through!!! Never was anyone turned away from your table at Thanksgiving and at Christmas you made sure everyone got a little something no matter what and you often times sacrificed greatly for that !!!! There will never be another person in this whole world like you M <3 ma , Heaven truly gained another Angel on November 11th 2015 and the world should weep because they lost one... “ One of my dearest memories of my aunt Vicky, was one of the Christmases I spent at my grandparents house. I was always a very shy little girl, not many people knew what I really wanted for Christmas. I was thankful for the gifts I got, and the family that gathered every year. after everyone opened their gifts a few more were left I thought I already opened all of mine and someone handed me a one more. But my name was spelled Nichole, my aunt always spelled it that way. I said "are you sure this is for me"? My mom said "yea it's from your uncle Steve and aunt vicky"? And when I ripped off the wrapping paper it was a beautiful barbie doll! Something I had wanted for a long time! It's a great memory I will always cherish and hold dear to my heart, along with her laughter and her wild spirit. Always asking 50 questions everytime I seen her even when she was getting sick, and it was difficult to talk, she still wanted to know how my family was doing. It's not goodbye but see you when we get there. Be with Jesus and watch over us when you can aunt vicky love you!

“ Vicky and I were not just brother and sister, but we were very close in age and looked to each other for comfort during times of trouble. We also enjoyed many joyful times together and I will never forget her. Until we meet again...
