“ Ginny and I go clear back to grade school and I loved her that long. Knowing her, God may make her in charge of the all the angels, because she was a super angel here on earth. She will be missed by Bud and her whole family. See you some day again Ginny. God wrap His arm around the family for peace. RIP girlfriend <3

“ I am reminded and hold tight to God's Word, “Blessed are those that mourn for they shall be comforted.” Therefore, I pray for comfort, and for the comfort of the rest of the family and for all those whose lives you have touched with your generous, compassionate and loving heart. You will be dearly missed, Sissy!!

I have so many wonderful memories of us to share, a couple from the “good old days,” like setting your kitchen on fire twice; and finding your only reaction to be that of a humorous fashion, laughing hardly at your silly little sister's trial and errors of learning to cook.

And then, remembering the numerous times I popped the clutch in your blue Mazda, actively discharging the fan belt from its proper place; you would just laugh, get out of the car, and with the help of a screwdriver put it back on, only to have to repeat several times until I finally mastered the art of clutching. It was so much more difficult Sissy than clutching a tractor, in an open field.

But you never gave up on me nor did you get impatience, you accepted me for me, trusted me with our sister secrets, and we were best friends. You stilled my deepest fears, you held my tears, you were my earthly rock—and we share the same heavenly Rock (our relationship with Jesus Christ, our Savior).

So, my dearest, loving, giving, forgiving Sister--thank you for filling my life with laughter, love, and security. “Keep the light on, Sissy!” For as you have always introduced me, it will be “your little sister” coming to see you, Sallie
