“ I will always remember the laughter and fun we all had playing Scrabble. She and daddy ( Bob ) used to beat us every time with two letter words that made 30-40 points. I had to get the Scrabble book of official words while I was up there. It is completely worn out but I just had to have it for the memories alone. We had such fun when we would see them on holidays and such. We will miss you Wanda. You were important in our lives and we were blessed to have you. With love, Pam & Terry
