I can attest to the pot belly "Homer" as my daughter was the recipient. He made sure of that! (She was renamed Sadie when we realized she was actually not a boy! 😂) Rest easy my lifelong friend!! Prayers for Tonya and the family*

“ I've become really close to Billy over the years... He was one of my all time best friends... We worked together for a long time. One of my most cherished memories was when we were together on 9-11...Even with all the tragic going on that day,Billy still had his way to make me smile and make the best of that day. Not one time did he ever turn away when I needed anything. He taught me what true friendship and family meant. He was like a dad,a brother,and best friend all in one! I'll always have a lump in my throat from now on... I love and miss you dear friend...

Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. We really enjoyed Billy, he was one in a million. Very caring man and he sure cared for everyone. Amos bought a golf cart off of him and we still have it and will never get rid of it. He always knew you when ever he met you. He will never be forgotten. He was a great man.

“ 1995 week 16 the Colts vs Patriots.
Colts had to win to make the playoffs and I invited uncle Bill to the game.
We (prob 15 people) left several hours before kickoff to tailgate and when we got there it was so cold we were the only crazy fans standing in the lot grilling food and having some beverages. We were some roudy fans walking to the dome just before kickoff. Walking through the doors of the RCA Dome they had a booth set up and would shave the hair on the side of your head into the shape of a horseshoe then paint it blue. Uncle Bill had both sides of his head done.
He never referred to them as horseshoes, when it was brought up he would always say, remember when I had those U's shaved in my head? LoL
Just one of many great memories, thanks for all the times you made me laugh Jim love and miss you already.
