“ I can't believe it's been 9 years today since I last saw you. Not the best memory to have, but it's the last memory I have to carry with me. Although I do have many good memories of you that I can cherish in my heart. Today is just a rough one. You were such a wonderful dad that I was blessed to have. I LOVE YOU DAD!!!! <3

“ I worked for Bill in the warehouse at Prairie. He was a good man. Because of him, I later got a much better job. He was always a very patient man. He was a great cook too. We were both married into the same family. Always willing to help. He will be missed.

“ Thanks dad for everything you did and went through for me I know I was a jerk at times but I honestly didn't mean it I love you even at the times it may not of felt like it you never gave up on me and rasied me like a son and always wanted best for me and I am trying to show everyone the man you have made me to be and I miss the time when I could tell you everything and I could trust you but it killed me to walk in your room to tell you something and it hit me your gone but never forgotten I wish I could have another day with you to show how much you mean to me you fought for me and went through pain and to make it through the surgery for me but you was drained or energy and there has to be a reason God took you but no one will understand until we meet again I love you thanks for being a father to me when my biological father could step up to the plate
