

William L. Marlow

February 14, 2013

William Lewis Marlow was born on September 15, 1935, in Kings Mountain, Kentucky, the son of the late Matt and Lilly (Burge) Marlow. Mr. Marlow attended schools in Kings Mountain, Kentucky. Following school, he enlisted in the United States Navy and was stationed aboard the U.S.S. The Sullivans. He served his country honorably for four years. On November 11, 1980, in Whitestown, Indiana, he was married to Brenda (Belcher) Marlow. Mrs. Marlow survives. In 1965, William began work for Mineweld as a semi driver. After twenty-five years, he retired in 1990. A devoted husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather, William loved having his family around and enjoyed the time spent fishing, talking about his time in the Navy while sitting on his front porch, and watching sports. He and his son spent many hours working on cars, mowers and ATVs together. He enjoyed being in the out-of-doors and listening to country music. Memberships: Whitestown American Legion
