“ William we had some great times I'm going to miss them but you will not be forgotten. The thing I loved about you most was your love for your two boys they had the best father a kid could ask for. I know that they will grow up just like you and have the upmost respect for others. I just don't know who I'll be able to grill out steaks at 2am and have as much fun and our constant bantering on facebook like we did. Love you brother you are greatly missed by many.
