“ I'm just now reading this and I am heartbroken. I had sent some letters to Jean and never had a response when I decided to do a quick google search to see if I could locate her. She was so precious to me. I called her my adopted grandma. My parents set up next to her at a doll show and we quickly became great friends. I have such fond memories of spending the night with her and Note. From zoo trips, to exploring her doll shop and making dolls with her, to trying on her jewelry, we always had a blast. I am so sorry for your loss. Your family is in my prayers. She was one of the best.

Domonique - though we never met, Mom spoke of you often. For family reasons, her real grandchildren were far away - not just in miles - and I know you filled a great void for her. Thank you for bringing her so much joy.

“Note and Jean were truly like grandparents to me. Even though Missy and Craig were their real grandchildren, I always loved them and especially after all my grandparents passed away, Jean felt like my last grandparent. I have so many memories from the course of my life....from barely remembering the old log house and the two dachshunds they had then; so many fish suppers at their kitchen table in their house in town and the evenings finished with visits by us women down in the doll shop and the men in Note’s office or garage (their house was so full of interesting things that a child bored by the adults’ talk was nonetheless not bored by looking around!); when I was in high school I attended a doll convention with Jean & Eileen, which will always remain as one of the most fascinating experiences in my life; and then most recently, visiting Jean nearly every weekend while she lived at Crown Point. Our family was truly blessed for having had Note & Jean as part of our lives, and with Jean’s passing, there will truly be a void. My sincere condolences to Notey and Missy and the rest of her family – thank you for sharing her with us!

Al and Shirley, its taken me awhile to bring myself to look at this page. Thank you for your kind thoughts. Mom had a good long life and was very much at peace when she passed.
